

GERALD R. FORD

February 27, 1996

Dear Mr. Piñera:

Betty and I cordially invite you and your spouse to be our guests at the fifteenth annual AEI World Forum to be held June 19–22, 1996, at Beaver Creek, Colorado.

Since 1982, the World Forum has attracted a highly accomplished group of business leaders, government officials and statesmen, and academic experts from around the world. The limited size of the group and the secluded setting in the beautiful Colorado Rockies provide an unsurpassed opportunity for productive discussion, mutual enlightenment, and enjoyable social occasions and recreation.

The 1996 World Forum, devoted to critical developments in politics, finance and trade, and social welfare policy around the globe, promises to be unusually lively and informative. I very much hope you can join us and play an active role in our proceedings.

A World Forum brochure and reply card are enclosed. If you are able to attend, Chris DeMuth of AEI will contact your office as the program takes shape to discuss your participation and the issues you would like to see addressed at the 1996 World Forum.

With all best wishes,

Mr. Jose Piñera
